HOME TALENT

A rumor was spread around that the gang back in our alley was putting on a big show. Cats, dogs, and little mice were making it snappy to get there on time and also trying to get a seat before it was too late.

At last the curtain goes up, the great local team Snyder, Snicklefritz and Snyder do a great strong act. The mouse family do a wooden soldier dance that brings down the house. But Bozo Dog seems to have a grouch on that day - so he starts a movement to secure some duck eggs from his neighbor, Duckie Duckling. When the next act is announced he lets go on the sign. Signor Mouse, the announcer returns the retort with an over ripe tomato.

In time the shows goes on again. Francois Cat and her bicycle act goes well until she tries fancy jumps then he crashes through the stage into the sewer and a burst of water rushes up washing away the whole crowd. In another moment there is a shower of cats and dogs all over the alley. The moral is "Every Man Should Have His Wife Insured".
